We are a medium sized sales and merchandising agency employing some 250 people. After struggling with the ever changing labour laws and equity requirements, we appointed Labournet 5 years ago.

I have found them to be most professional and I am always amazed at how quickly their staff understand our business and labour issues. Their response time to phone calls and queries is superb and I have found their staff to be competent and highly skilled. They set their rates annually and there are no hidden costs.

Labournet have taken the CCMA hassles out of our business and allow us to do what we do best!
